

5.1.2 ملخص المشروع باللغة الانجليزية :

The aim of this project (investment student in environmental development and coordination of beauty in the scope of the Faculty of Agriculture at Mochtohor) to make a quantum leap in the systems involved students in the Faculty of Agriculture, University of Banha and transferred the systems live up to global level in terms of employment potential student of human-in-cheek community and environmental development, including commensurate with the labor market needs and requirements of self-employment and international standards of quality and total quality requirements and had to be to contribute to students of the College of Agriculture at Mochtohor in relay undergraduate and graduate studies as well as faculty members and administrators and staff college to participate in this topic Festive Deals by contributing to building a culture of environmental inside and outside the college of awareness of the importance of environmental conservation and development of environmental awareness among members of the academic community and the public, and implementing effective ideas that protect the environment and natural resources that make the pursuit and preservation in a matter of urgency: (1.)The proposal to establish a digital system code for all buildings and facilities and laboratories within the Faculty of Agriculture at Mochtohor.(2.) The work of raising the surveyors of all buildings and facilities the faculty.(3). Co-ordination and beautification of the campus inside and outside the Faculty.(4.) Raise environmental awareness among students about the risks that threaten the Faculty. (5.) To provide an opportunity for students and college students to discover and employ their energies and skills for their own benefit the physical and moral at the same time, which can total investment of these energies in achieving the strategic objectives of the University of Banha, Faculty of Agriculture at Mochtohor. (6.) Raising the field of buildings and facilities within the walls of the Faculty and accessories.

Documenting and mapping explanatory comment on the postponement of the Faculty and the other for the realization of the detailed maintenance and repair- Inventory of buildings and facilities - Action code of digital quality depending on the nature of the buildings and their contents and internal floors and rooms - published codes by email and paper publications and signboards outside and within buildings - Coordination and beautification and maintenance of green spaces within the campus - Paint the walls and sidewalks within the Faculty- Participation and references tests of Industrial Security and Civil Defense inside the buildings every 4 months & Beauty College outer wall - about 20 training course and workshop covering the following topics: (a coding Building Digital - environmental awareness and beauty in society - waste recycling and agricultural biosecurity and environmental - the basis of internal coordination of the buildings - the foundations of coordination outside of buildings and safety - biogas and bio-fertilizer - industrial safety and civil defense - methods of student participation in environmental education - methods of planning and environmental development in the community).